

PREVENT

	Staff and trustees at Camphill have a responsibility to make sure that everyone is safe.
	This includes supporting and protecting students who might be at risk of being drawn into terrorist or extreme activity.
	Some people may be more easily influenced by the views of others.
	If you feel uncomfortable about the views of another person then speak to a member of staff.
	If you feel pressured into accepting the views of another person then speak to a member of staff.
	If you are asked to look at material which contains violence or terrorism then speak to a member of staff.

 The illustration shows a sequence of events: a person with a red 'X' over them, a person with a downward arrow pointing to them, a person pointing at another person, and two people talking with a speech bubble.	If you think that someone else is being pressured by an individual into accepting their views then speak to a member of staff.
 The illustration shows a person pointing at another person with a speech bubble containing symbols like *#@} &amp;! and a group of people in a circle, including one person in a wheelchair.	At college you will have sessions which look at topics which include bullying, diversity and British Values.
 The illustration shows a person's face with a thought bubble and several religious symbols: a wheel, Om, a Star of David, a crescent moon, a Khanda, and a cross.	It is important to accept that people have different views and opinions and religions.
 The illustration shows a person's face with a worried expression and two people talking with a speech bubble.	If you feel uncomfortable you should speak to someone.
 A portrait of a woman with blonde hair, identified as Helen.	The staff member in college who leads on Prevent is Helen.
 The illustration shows a person's face with a worried expression, two people talking with a speech bubble, a portrait of Helen, and a house icon containing three people.	If you have any worries or concerns you can speak to Helen or another trusted member of staff.
