

Independence Pathway

On Independence, you will learn to:

look after yourself make choices and solve problems stay safe and feel more confident get ready for work and life

You will:

practice real-life tasks and working work on skills like communication, confidence and teamwork learn things linked to your interests learn through practical activities

Independence Pathway

Qualifications you can work towards

Skills for Living and Work

English or maths Functional Skills

Arts Award or Duke of Edinburgh Award

By the end of the course, you will:

be more independent make safer choices

talk about what you want and need take part in your community get ready for your future

